Education Session: Long-term Water Management in Rural Communities

September 9, 2025

Fred Breedlove
Dorsey & Whitney LLP

Fred Breedlove is a water rights and natural resources attorney at the law firm Dorsey & Whitney LLP in Phoenix, Arizona. His experience includes representing developers, golf courses, ranchers, farmers, private water and energy utilities, government agencies, and private equity investment firms. In his practice, Fred has assisted clients on a wide variety of water rights issues, including due diligence, transactions (groundwater, surface water, and Colorado River entitlements), assured and adequate water supply issues, permitting, planning, risk analysis, and AMA management plan compliance. Fred has worked on water issues for nearly twenty years, thirteen as an attorney and six years in various roles in state government.
